

Presents:

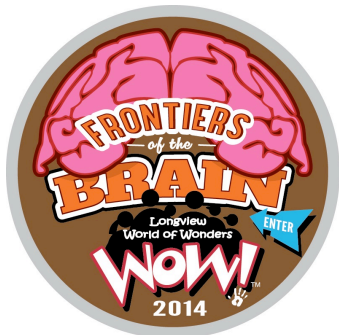

Frontiers of the Brain

•10 a.m.-4 p.m., Oct. 25

•Longview Exhibit Building,
1123 Jaycee Drive

•$5 per person, ages 5 and younger free

This form is good for one free child admission with paid adult.

Souvenir patches may be ordered for $3 each through Sept. 26. Patches will be available for pick-up at the event, with a limited number available for sale on Oct. 25.

Form good at the door day of the event,
or register in advance: LongviewWOW;
P.O. Box 2647; Longview, Texas 75606
$5 per person
children 5 and younger free

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ e-mail _____

No. of adults _____ No. of children older than 5 _____
(Count should include free child, total paid should not)

No. of patches ($3 each, order must be received by Sept. 26) _____

Check Enclosed: $ _____

- The MEGA Brain® — take a walk through the central nervous system’s most vital organ.
- Activities and exhibits by other community organizations, including: Heads In Helmets will fit children with free bicycle helmets; the Longview Police Department will present information on bicycle safety and the effects of drug and alcohol; the Austen-Coley Academy will provide dyslexia simulations; the Pilot Club of Longview will present a brain safety puppet show; and more.
- Smart Fair: Inventions, demonstrations and more from local schools.
- Mind benders puzzles and stereogram puzzles
- Silent auction
- Visit www.longviewwow.org for information.

Thanks to our major sponsors:

This event is sponsored in part by a grant from the City of Longview Cultural Activities Commission.